PrimaSTEM Product Sheet

Screen-free coding and mathematics · Ages 4–10 · Made from wood

PrimaSTEM is a wooden programmable robot that teaches both coding and mathematics without a screen. Children place NFC command tokens on a tangible control board to build programs they can see and touch.

Two curriculum levels in one device: logic for ages 4–7 and real mathematics for ages 7–10. The robot draws geometric figures — stars, spirals, polygons — making math visible.

CE & UKCA certified. Made in Cannes, France. Complete kit with online lesson plans in 10 languages.
